

Test Case: [Login] Login with Invalid Credentials (W-FUN.3)

Test Objective:
Ensure that a registered user cannot log in to their account using invalid login credentials.

Author:
Szymon Pilszak

- Preconditions:
- Access to the website: <https://tester.codersguru.pl/>
  - A registered user exists
  - Valid login credentials:
    - Email: aaaaa@wp.pl
    - Password: aaaaa

Test Steps

Step	Action	Expected Result	Execution Status
1	Open the website https://tester.codersguru.pl/	The website is displayed correctly	Positive
2	Click the "Log in" button located in the top-right corner of the page	The user is redirected to the login subpage	Positive
3	Enter a valid email address in the "E-mail" field, enter an invalid password in the "Password" field, and click "Log in"	The system does not allow login and displays a red error message: "Invalid credentials."	Positive
4	Enter an invalid email in the "E-mail" field and a valid password in the "Password" field, then click "Log in"	The system does not allow login and displays a red error message: "Invalid credentials."	Positive
5	Enter a valid email in the "E-mail" field, leave the "Password" field empty, and click "Log in"	The system displays a red error message: "This field is required."	Positive
6	Leave the "E-mail" field empty, enter a valid password in the "Password" field, and click "Log in"	The system displays a red error message: "This field is required."	Positive

Execution Type: Manual and Automated
Priority/Weight: Medium
Estimated Execution Time: 40 minutes
Tester: Szymon Pilszak
Test Environment:

- Windows 10 Home 21H2 x64
- Google Chrome 141.0.7390.55 (64-bit)
- PyCharm + Robot Framework

Execution Result: Positive